10th December at BP

11th December at Bp

Work group that meets once a month. Cross functional work group, this is amde up of faculty, staff, students, dean's, everyone essentially. Torrio is Looking for new members and consensus for time's that are available. This work group would talk about gaps in student life and faculty policy and procedure. This is trying to make a tighter knit community and fill in gaps in the community. This board will make policies and enforce rules. It is not a committee it is in fact a work group that will make policies after hearing from all areas of life on the campus.

Anybody interested can talk to Pang or Stephen

IX. New business:

- a. Event in plan (progress report/contributions/opinions)
  - PRC Anne is talking about Senates first event. Signs will be posted today and advertised today. Event is November 21st Thursday in Cafeteria at 2 PM - 4. Food still needs to be ordered. What games and rolls will be played by who. DIY Sweater content, Trivia game, candy walk, connect 4, and jenga. Music will also play. This will be our first Senate event. "Sweater Soiree Event". Anne already has the flyers designed, she is going to make corrections and send them to Pang today. They should be put up either today or tomorrow. The posters for the event look amazing

b. Equal representation (Where are we? Shall we work towards securing lecture-free status for student senate time?)

- Hayden and Jacob will be handing out flyers for Individual programs poster/white boards. They have different graphics and messages for each individual program.
- Automotive class times can often extend past the designated class period.
- Stephen will talk to LeeAnn and Joy about times and dates. Teachers are submitting their academic plan for 2026, how this will conflict with Senate times and will be revisited at the next meeting. Teachers are encouraged to not schedule class time for Student meetings.

X. Announcements: Veterans event coming up. Not senate event but senate supported.

Other :

- Student expressed the fact that students are faced with the choice of class or Senate. Senate meetings occur during class times and don't allow certain students to attend without sacrificing class time. Also expressed the interest in a designated lunch time during Senate meetings.
